Uwe Anders was born in Neuss, Germany, in 1955.

HIS CAREER:

He has devoted himself to painting since the 1980s and has participated in numerous exhibitions in Germany and other countries. Among other awards, Uwe Anders has won the DEVK and Express prizes in the HA-Schult-Weltkugel photo competition and participated in a German-Colombian artist exchange in South America, where he exhibited his works in Bogotá.

HIS WORK:

In this series, Anders' central theme is the reinterpretation of images and the search for the hidden meaning of everything. His inscription on a black background could be translated as 'More explanations on the back'. But Uwe Anders prefers 'See differently - Think differently' and invites us to change our perspective to consider more closely the medium of any image, or even the material of which it is made. By shifting the viewer's attention from the subject presented to the representation of the subject itself, Uwe Anders forces us to see differently, think differently and ultimately act differently.
