BIO :

Originally from Brasschaat (Belgium), Hannie Calcoen trained as an artist at the Sint-Lucas Institute in Kapellen.

CAREER :

She continued her training on the island of Samos under a Greek master, Aristoteles Solounias, who taught her the Sfumato technique, in which the artist paints using vague, hazy contours. For several years now, Hannie Calcoen has been working in her own studio, giving free rein to her inspiration and her pictorial dynamism.

WORK :

In this series, we can see how, layer by layer, the final work comes to life. Intense luminosity and movement are ever-present in her canvases.
