WORK:

"It was while sailing across the Atlantic, from the Azores to Portugal, that the blue deeply inspired me in this face-to-face encounter with the ocean.

In this ocean of canvases, the magic of colours immerses us in a gentle poetry. The air that bathes the gallery transports us like a skiff rocked by the gentle rolling movement of lights, warm tones and shapes. A gentle crossing. On horizons with soft perspectives, I trace tones of colour that reflect all the whims of the immense ocean... And God knows how big it is... gigantic...

The pebbles become magical under my skilful brushes. They ricochet the roaring water of the rising tide as much as the flashes of light that the sun distributes so generously. The deep and vaporous foam puts all its freshness and energy into the animated lines that I inscribe in filigree.... The sailboats soar like flying fish, in shimmering colours that mock the onslaught of the waves. Under my agile brushes, the colours are fearless, unsinkable and deep".
