BIO :

Born in 1970 in Buenos Aires, Argentina, painter Silvia lives and works near Paris.

BACKGROUND :

After studying marketing at university, she realised that her true calling was painting and, from 1991, began taking classes at the École des Beaux-Arts in Nice.

WORK :

This artist draws part of her inspiration from her childhood spent in Argentina in the Rio de la Plata Delta. This series, created using acrylics and gloss, comprises two sets of works: a collection inspired by the landscapes of southern Argentina, including Lake Argentino, the Perito Moreno Glacier and, further south, the Beagle Channel near Ushuaia. Another collection, entitled Saveurs des chefs, features the colours of Michelin-starred chefs' dishes and was created through tastings and meetings with Henri Roux, Hervé Rodriguez, Jean-Louis Nomicos... Here, colours and textures lend Silvia Depaire's works an air of extreme generosity and indulgence !
