BIO: Lives and works in Pyla in south-western France.

BACKGROUND: Nathalie Grange began painting, drawing and sculpting at a young age and went on to study art at the Bordeaux School of Fine Arts. Her work is featured in galleries in Paris and Brittany, and she exhibits her paintings at art fairs and solo and group exhibitions. She was selected for the Salon Art en Capital at the Grand Palais and the Salon d'Automne in 2016 and 2017 in Paris.

HER WORK: The artist confides, "My favourite subjects are wide open spaces such as ports and boats, the wind in the sails, but also the world's big cities, bubbling with energy. To achieve this, I play with horizontals and verticals to convey movement and emotion. I use acrylics, collages and markers, prepare my canvases and allow the weave to show through in order to better integrate the work into its support."
