BIO:

Martine Hougardy was born in 1963 in the Huy region.

BACKGROUND:

This artist studied art (drawing and painting) at the Academies of Fine Arts in Liège and Huy. She moved from figurative to abstract art in order to express her emotions in their purest form, unencumbered by any logic, not even that of images: only that of colour.

WORK:

We are captivated by a surprising sense of life. These colours move and retain the freshness of their initial burst. Her initial impulse, all spontaneity and instinct, is subsequently carefully considered. The result is a serenity in the harmony of the tones and the distribution of light. A joyful, very feminine painting in which the joie de vivre never descends into violence or excess.
