BIO :

Monique Paul was born in 1939.

BACKGROUND :

She took classes at various studios in Brussels, notably with Mario Gigli.

WORK :

She works on a variety of media: canvases, mounted paper and cardboard, and salvaged, crumpled cardboard – materials that are difficult to ‘tame’ and have pronounced edges, lending themselves to a particular approach. Onto these surfaces are applied pastes with textured imprints, fragments of fabric, photographs, medical imagery, sand, cement and pastels, which bring vitality to the work, which has been washed repeatedly with walnut stain. As the piece takes shape, it is the materials themselves that dictate the gesture and accentuate the reliefs. Yet her primary obsession remains colour. Monique Paul’s work is the result of a deeply internalised exploration.
