BIO:

Elena Sanjosé is a Spanish artist of Catalan origin, born in 1941, who has been living in Belgium for 30 years.

BACKGROUND:

She already has a very impressive career as a painter, punctuated by several solo and group exhibitions.

WORK:

The duality of her life in Belgium and her Spanish origins is very evident. She shows a clear fondness for her native South and perhaps a certain nostalgia for the sunny days she experienced there. Her characters are geometric, but bathed in very bright colours. She depicts ordinary people in their daily lives: fishermen, markets, the blue sea...

The emotion that shines through her half-hidden faces is quite intense.
