HER BIOGRAPHY :

Born and educated in Morocco.

HER BACKGROUND :

A pupil of Th.J. Debaye (watercolourist), Suzanne Drouet also trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Versailles before becoming a pupil of Christine Paglieri. At the same time, she worked in private and group studios.

HER WORK :

"I have always painted, but the vagaries and constraints of life meant that I only devoted myself to it seriously at a late stage. My many travels have fuelled my imagination, and I have exhibited in places as diverse as Miami, Santa Fe and, of course, Paris, Mulhouse, Lyon, Aix-en-Provence, etc. I feel that, little by little, my painting is evolving towards sequenced strokes of colour and light which, whilst appearing unfinished, leave the eye and the mind with the immense emotion of rediscovering the figurative line. From the explosion of colours springs a whirlwind of joy, joie de vivre and optimism that carries us far from gloom".
