HER BIO :

Eugénie Moulin is a Belgian artist born in 1948.

HER BACKGROUND :

A versatile artist, she divides her time between painting and writing. Eugénie has made a name for herself in the world of stories for teenagers, as well as for her poetry. She taught herself to draw and later to paint.

HER WORK :

When Eugénie talks about her paintings, she first mentions her desire to create; she needs colours and, above all, to do what she likes. Her abstract geometric work could be likened to that of stained-glass craftsmen. Each motif catches the light differently and draws the viewer's eye. Sometimes in cubes that seem to float freely, sometimes in a more structured pattern reminiscent of motifs straight out of our subconscious.
