BIOGRAPHY :

Born in Paris in 1963.

CAREER :

Piaf has a passion for imagery and worked in photography, advertising and graphic design before devoting himself primarily to painting. In 1992, he moved to Guadeloupe and draws the magic of his acrylics from everyday life. Exhibitions in Guadeloupe, Paris, St Jean de Luz, Ibiza,

ARTISTIC APPROACH :

Seeking not to replicate reality, he distills it, filters it, erases the detail, improvises his brushstrokes and thus transforms reality into poetry. Movement takes hold of the space.

Piaf is an authentic painter who alternates between doubt, anticipation and serenity, following an instinctive path. He broadens the scope of our perceptions so that the lightness of the ephemeral transcends mere anecdotal character to reach the universal and the infinite. Currently, his work with different materials and multiple textures adds another dimension and tends to create a new aesthetic.
