BIO :

Parisian artist David Dehaineault was born in 1975. He developed his painting skills through interaction with other artists during workshops, courses and artist residencies.

CAREER :

A member of the Yo'Studio artists' collective, he has taken part in numerous exhibitions in the Paris region (the Salon des Indépendants ART EN CAPITAL at the Grand Palais in Paris; winner of the People's Choice Award at the ARTS19 fair in 2008).

WORK :

Painted in oils and at night, these canvases draw their inspiration from Yves Tanguy's depictions of the seabed, from stays by the seaside and, more generally, from his desire to traverse vast, isolated spaces. The series of paintings exhibited here explores the idea of exceptional nature.

These paintings are characterised by a succession of horizontal bands of blue, green and yellow colours which, at first glance, appear distinct from one another. And yet this technique highlights all the variations, tensions and vibrations created between the main protagonists of these works: the colours.

Your company supports artists whose paintings are on display for your enjoyment. Each work is unique and original. If you fall in love with one of them, all the works are for sale.
