BIO :

Florence Dupré-James lives and works in Santenay, Burgundy. For her, art is a family affair: her children and partner are also artists. This allows her to thrive in a vibrant community teeming with visual artists and gallery owners.

BACKGROUND :

Trained at the Beaux-Arts in Chalon-sur-Saône, she paints in acrylic and oil and exhibits regularly in her region, in Paris and in several European countries such as Germany and Belgium.

WORK :

"After exploring figurative painting in my early years, I felt the need to move away from the subject to explore the most fundamental aspects of painting: colour, texture and form. My work is constantly evolving; nothing is set in stone. The doubt that dwells within me compels me to question and drives me forward, in an ever-deeper exploration of pictorial representation. For me, painting is freedom and creativity; I take great pleasure in it!"
