BIO :

Gilles Maes was born in 1954 to a father who was one of the most renowned portrait photographers of the 1940s and 1950s, and a mother who was also a photographer, retoucher and painter.

CAREER :

He watched as the family studio produced portraits of all the celebrities from the worlds of cinema, music and literature who visited Brussels.

WORK :

It is impossible for him to betray his origins: he loves the world of stars past and present, and creates portraits that are both surprising and astonishingly close to the personality and secret nature of each of his subjects.
