BIO :

Muriel Cayet (born in 1961) is, first and foremost, an art therapist.

CAREER :

She has received numerous prizes and honours at just as many exhibitions and art fairs around the world.

WORK :

Her paintings are instinctive, intuitive creations that focus on a single idea : form in the process of taking shape, and the pleasure and joy of expression in the moment of creation. She has chosen to work with a sense of urgency, a choice that demands rapid creativity and a genuine responsiveness to the tools at her disposal – the canvas, brushes and colours. Some might think that this way of working risks distancing her from the pursuit of aesthetics or a highly polished result; she does not see it that way. On the contrary: "In this way, the gesture is not lost, and the artist strips away the superfluous, all those layers that conceal in order to express... to truly express!" A mirror of emotions ? Without a doubt !
