BIO :

Olivier Keuller was born in 1965 and is self-taught.

CAREER :

He is passionate about painting, drawing and sculpture. He is strongly influenced by Soutine and Malevich.

WORK :

This young painter presents a geometric series. An exploration of lines and structures within an abstract composition. However, certain landscapes are recognisable and are sure to make an impression. His technique showcases the richness of oil paint, applied at times with a palette knife and at times with a brush. He plays extensively with perspective and draws the eye towards the background of the painting. A marvellous result that lends the canvas great depth.
