BIO :
Monique Paul was born in 1939.

CAREER :
She took classes at various studios in Brussels, notably with Mario Gigli.

WORK :
She works on a variety of media: canvases, mounted paper and cardboard, recycled cardboard, crumpled and difficult to ‘tame’ with pronounced edges that lend themselves to a particular approach. Onto these surfaces are applied pastes with textured imprints, fragments of fabric, photographs, medical imagery, sand, cement and pastels, which energise the work, which has been washed repeatedly with walnut stain. As the piece takes shape, it is the materials themselves that generate the gesture and accentuate the reliefs. Yet her primary obsession remains colour. Monique Paul’s work is the result of a deeply internalised exploration.
