Biography :

Born in 1938 in Andenne (Belgium).

Career :

André Sprumont developed a passion for painting at a very early age and taught himself the craft. Since 1995, he has devoted himself entirely to his art.

Artistic approach :

After a period of figurative work, he embraced lyrical abstraction, embarking on a journey through luminous emotions. His abstract chiaroscuro and subtle bursts of colour make him one of the most interesting artists. He has, moreover, been the subject of various publications and is featured in the Benezit.

"André Sprumont gives form to shapes and stabilises their infinite movement within tranquil geometric spaces. Far from fragmenting or dividing formal emotion, or reducing it to a fragment of the infinite, he enriches it with a wholly new spiritual dimension."

Whilst everything seems dead, life surges forth in its duration, from dawn to vertigo, from dream to night. The silences bring joy through chance encounters with the earth, and every material finds its truth within it."
