BIOGRAPHY :
Carine Strebelle was born in 1960.

BACKGROUND :
She is an art teacher and has taken courses at the Watermael-Boisfort Academy.

WORK :
Should one look to an object as the source of inspiration for a painting?
No, one must accept this surface – where colours and shapes coexist in harmony and softness – for what it is. Carine Strebelle's pure abstraction is a melody. The white surfaces welcome the pigments and masses, with the occasional small patch of light, an unpainted area, revealing the raw material. Canvas or polyester – to each their own sensibility.
